

PRESIDENT MCGINLEY PRESIDING

PRESIDENT: Please rise for the Prayer. This morning our Chaplain is the Pastor of the Mount Zion Baptist Church here in Lincoln. I present to you the Reverend G. L. Collins.

REVEREND COLLINS: (Prayer offered.)

PRESIDENT: Thank you very much, Pastor Collins. Members, please record your presence for the roll call. Members throughout the Capitol Building, please report to the Legislative Chamber for the beginning of the legislative day. Roll call is in progress. Members, please report to the Legislative Chamber for the beginning of the legislative day. Roll call is in progress. The Clerk will record the roll.

CLERK: There is a quorum present, Mr. President.

PRESIDENT: Quorum present, the Legislature is in session. Do you have matters for the record, Mr. Clerk?

CLERK: Mr. President, LR 277 and 278 are ready for your signature.

PRESIDENT: While the Legislature is in session and capable of transacting business, I propose to sign and do sign LR 277 and LR 278. And first off the Chair would recognize Senator DeCamp on a point of personal privilege.

SENATOR DECAMP: I would like to take an opportunity this morning to introduce to the Legislature the Ambassador to the United States from the country of El Salvador and I need not say the affiliation this country has with El Salvador. He is Mr. Ernesto Rivas-Gallont and I hope I pronounced that somewhat right. He is going around the United States explaining what is going on in El Salvador, giving the explanation as that government sees it and after the introduction he will be going to the East Chamber and any Senator that wants to listen to him over there or ask any questions, he would be happy to answer their questions. He is going to be talking to the Kiwanis over there. So would
